Sunday School Entertainment

The basement of the United church was filled last Friday night by an appreciative audience which came to see the entertainment put on by the Sunday school. Following the singing of a hymn by the Sunday school, Rev. E. F. Kemp, gave a short appropriate address.

The program included the following items: a song and short recitations by Mrs. McLaren's Beginner's Class; recitations by the Playmates, Fred Hatch's class; song, "The Big Bad Wolf" by Miss Dunn's pupils; solo by Bobbie Morrell; chorus "Sunflowers" by Mrs. Shield's class; pantomime "Cat Pie" by the Tuxis boys; orchestra selections; playette by Jr. Daniels Band, Mrs. Langmuir's class; chorus by Sr. and Jr. Daniels Band; playette "Sunbeams" by Mrs. MacArthur's class; solo "This Little Pig" by Everett Thygesen; playette "School Days" by Miss Dunn's Torchbearers class, pantomime "The Dentist" by boys from Mrs. Wright's class; accordion selection by Mr. J. Shields; dialogue by Bert Miller and Donald McKay; dialogue by Ernest Trewin and Harold Keown; song "That Fish I Caught" by Robert and Billy Neid; and a play "Archibald" by Mrs. Scott's and Miss Todd's classes.

Great credit is due to the young people taking part in the program and all who directed them, for the very enjoyable and successful entertainment provided. The variety of numbers given revealed all kinds of talent and there should be no difficulty in arranging a similar entertainment at some future date.
